

McPolin Elementary Office Updates
Thursday February 17th, 2022

Dear parents and caregivers,

Apologies for day late office update. Given the timing I will keep this short and sweet! Please do review the dates listed in the box below. We plan on a super exciting March and welcome everyone to participate as they can.

As we prepare the February Break, we must continue to remind ourselves of what an amazing and successful journey we continue to be on. The pandemic started just about two years ago. In that time, we have come together as a community to support our students and each other. I recognize our yearnings for a return to normalcy. This experience of keeping schools open has been one of the most rewarding experiences of my life. I love being part of an amazing community who put aside differences to focus on what matters, our young students and keeping school open. ALL for One and One for ALL!

With that shared, I need to start with a list of thanks:

- Thanks to our amazing PTO members, officers, and volunteers! The healthy snacks, sandwiches, and more during our Parent/Teacher Conference weeks were greatly appreciated by all!
- Thanks to our parents for taking the time to participate in the recent conferences. I trust the meetings were productive.
- Thanks to our community, our families, and our students. Reaching the February break without missing a day of in-person learning deserves recognition!

We wish everyone a relaxing and well-deserved break this coming week. We will be recharged and ready more than ever to get back to work. See you Monday, February 28th. We Got This!

Sincerely,
Bob Edmiston

Important Dates:

- NO SCHOOL NEXT WEEK – February 21st-25th
 - See you Monday, February 28th
